

RESINOL A SAFE CHARITY BALL A BRILLIANT SUCCESS

SKIN TREATMENT

You need never hesitate to use resinol ointment and resinol soap in the treatment of severe or simple skin troubles. There is nothing in them to injure the tenderest skin. Resinol is a doctor's prescription which, for over twenty years, has been constantly used by other physicians for eczema and other itchy, burning, unsightly skin affections.

They prescribe resinol, knowing that its remarkable soothing, healing action is due to the tenderest skin. Resinol is a doctor's prescription which, for over twenty years, has been constantly used by other physicians for eczema and other itchy, burning, unsightly skin affections.

How the Right Soap Can Help Your Skin

Money cannot buy a purer, more cleansing toilet soap than resinol soap. And the healing resinol medication in it helps to keep the complexion clear, fresh and beautiful.

WEDDINGS.

Farrell-Powers.

In St. Patrick's church at 8 o'clock Monday morning Miss Mary Anastasia Powers of Cliff place was united in marriage with James William Farrell of New York city, formerly of Norwich, by Rev. John A. Dooley of St. Patrick's church, this city. Rev. John H. Broderick was celebrant of the nuptial mass, and Prof. F. L. Farrell presided at the organ. At the offertory Ave Maria was rendered by Mrs. F. L. Farrell.

Miss Loretta J. Powers, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid, and Thomas J. Conroy, Jr., of New York, a personal friend of the groom, was the best man.

The bride was charmingly dressed in Chantilly lace and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid was attired in white tulle over a gown of pleated chiffon and carried pink Killarney roses.

After the ceremony at the church a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents at Cliff place. Receiving with the bride and groom were Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Powers, parents of the bride, the color scheme was pink in the living room and yellow and white in the dining room.

The ushers were George S. Powers, brother of the bride, and Judge Frank A. Saporito of Mt. Vernon, N. Y. There were guests in attendance from Monson, Mass., Salem, Mass., New York, Mt. Vernon and Englewood.

The groom is the son of the late James William Farrell and Annie E. Dunne Farrell and he is an attorney, practicing in New York city.

Mr. Farrell is a native of Norwich and a graduate of the Norwich Free Academy, class of 1910. He is a member of the City club of New York city.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Powers of Cliff place and until recently was a teacher at the Broadway grammar school.

The couple left by automobile for a wedding tour of the city, stopping at 105 West 14th street, New York city.

The bride received many handsome gifts, including cut glass, silverware, linen and money. Both are very well known and have the best wishes of their many friends.

Maynard-Scott.

A special to the Syracuse, N. Y. Post-Standard of Saturday read as follows:

Richmond, Va., March 3.—A marriage license was issued here today to Clarence Francis Maynard, civil engineer of New Haven, Conn., and Mrs. Lucy Chamberlaine Scott of Syracuse, N. Y., widow of Richard C. Scott of Petersburg, Va., niece of Bishop Gibson of the Episcopal diocese of Virginia, and daughter of the late Captain John Hampden Chamberlaine, for many years editor of the old Richmond State. The wedding will take place tomorrow.

Mrs. Scott was residing in Baltimore when she became a widow eight years ago. She had been attending the West-Hampton School for Boys, conducted by her brother, Rev. Churchill Gibson Chamberlaine. Maynard is a native of Norwich, Conn. He is 29 years old.

FUNERALS.

Arthur Kelley.
Rev. F. W. Coleman officiated at the funeral of Arthur Kelley held from the funeral parlors of Cummings & Ring Monday afternoon. The bearers were Thomas K. Kelley, Theophilus M. Brown, Everett Kelley and Frank M. Hilton. Burial was in Maplewood cemetery, where Rev. Mr. Coleman read a committal service over the grave.

Mrs. Benjamin F. Huntington.
The funeral of Henrietta Ladd, widow of Benjamin F. Huntington, took place Saturday afternoon at 1.30 o'clock from her home in Franklin, with relatives and friends attending. Rev. Edward P. Phreaner of Norwich town conducted the funeral services and four friends acted as bearers. Burial was in Fauterbury cemetery. Rev. Mr. Phreaner read a committal service at the grave.

Undertaker Gager had charge of the funeral arrangements.

"Well, I Should Say 'Gets-It' DOES Work"

"Look a' There, If You Don't Think It's Just Wonderful for Corns!"

"Bless my stars, look at it! Land of me! Why, just look at it! That corn came right off—just like peeling bananas. Put your finger on my toe, right there—don't be afraid, it's 'Gets-It'—feel how smooth the skin is? Well, that's where the corn was. Well, that beats all!" That's the way "Gets-It" works on all corns, every corn, every time. It's the new, simple way of curing corns. You'll say good-bye to all foolish contraptions like undulating bandages, sticky tape, plasters, toe-eating salves, and grave-diggers such as knives, razors and scissors. "Gets-It" stops pain. Applied 2 seconds. Never fails. Nothing sticks to, hurt or press on the corn. "Gets-It" is sold everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

CHARITY BALL A BRILLIANT SUCCESS

Nearly a Thousand People Attended Annual Event at Armory—Elaborate Decorations and Many Beautiful Gowns.

With an attendance of nearly a thousand, the annual charity ball held under the auspices of the Catholic Women's club of St. Patrick's parish took place in the state armory on Monday evening. The stormy evening had but little effect on the attendance at the ball, which was decidedly successful.

Green and White Color Scheme.

The color scheme, green and white, was most effectively carried out in the box and ceiling decorations. On the front of the orchestra balcony was a large electric sign "CHARITY," and on the gallery at the opposite end appeared a large electric star. Occupying a position in the center of the hall was a beautiful floral pyramid, lighted by a myriad of electric bulbs. On the north side of the hall the boxes, which were arranged in a double row, one above the other, were lighted by shaded electric bulbs, the whole presenting a scene of enhancing beauty.

The Concert Programme.

From 8.30 to 9 o'clock Drew's augmented orchestra, James F. Drew leader, rendered the following concert programme:

March—Hippodrome Sousa
Overture—Zampa Verdi
Quartet—Rigoletto Verdi
Selection—Popular Airs Remick

The Grand March.

Following the concert programme, came the grand march with 100 couples in line. The grand march was led by Mrs. Frank A. Saporito, president, and Mrs. Sylvia. The second couple were Mrs. Nellie Sullivan, vice president, and James McCarthy, and they were followed by Mrs. M. H. Donohue, president, and John P. Corcoran, Mrs. Chester E. Wright and William Shea of Waterbury.

The second number on the dance programme was a lancers, Faith, Hope and Charity, and this was followed by the remainder of the 18 numbers, which included waltzes, two-step, one-step and fox trot.

SAGE TEA PUTS LIFE AND COLOR IN HAIR

Don't stay gray! Sage Tea and Sulphur dyes hair as naturally that nobody can tell.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, by a well-known druggist here, because it dyes the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.

This is the case of youth. Gray-haired unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.
